THAILAND

Orchids
More than 1,500 species of orchids grow wild in Thai forests.

Buddhism
The official religion in Thailand
More than 95% of the population
40,000 Buddhist temples in Thailand
Monk universities: life studying, meditating and teaching.

Agricultural Products
Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Thai food
Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Mangosteen, Durian, Dragon fruit, Rose apple, Longan and Mango.

The most popular Thai fruits in Thailand

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)

Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Approximately 10% of the world’s bird species live in Thailand.

Muay Thai (Thai boxing) is a native form of kickboxing, Sepak takraw (kick volleyball).

Thailand’s signature sport

Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)

Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Approximately 10% of the world’s bird species live in Thailand.

Muay Thai (Thai boxing) is a native form of kickboxing, Sepak takraw (kick volleyball).

Thailand’s signature sport

Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)

Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Approximately 10% of the world’s bird species live in Thailand.

Muay Thai (Thai boxing) is a native form of kickboxing, Sepak takraw (kick volleyball).

Thailand’s signature sport

Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)

Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Approximately 10% of the world’s bird species live in Thailand.

Muay Thai (Thai boxing) is a native form of kickboxing, Sepak takraw (kick volleyball).

Thailand’s signature sport

Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)

Rice, cassava (manioc, tapioca), sugarcane, palm oil, rubber, corn, coconuts, pineapple, livestock, fish products.

Tropical beaches and exotic islands
Koh Tao, Koh Pha Ngan, Phuket, Koh Lanta, Koh Chang, Similan Islands And Koh Phi Phi.

Approximately 10% of the world’s bird species live in Thailand.

Muay Thai (Thai boxing) is a native form of kickboxing, Sepak takraw (kick volleyball).

Thailand’s signature sport

Massaman curry, Panang curry, Tom Yum soup and Green curry.

Elephant (Thailand’s national symbol)
A considerable impact on Thai culture.
A substantial role in manual labour, war, royal iconography, and the tourism industry.

Python:
Thailand is home to the reticulated python.
The largest ever found was over 33 feet long.

The world’s smallest mammal:
The Craseonycteris thonglongya.
(Thailand’s bumble bat)

Native dog: Thai Bangkaew
Native cats: Wichien Maat (Siamese)