

K E N Y A

Lake Nakuru is part of the Great African Rift Valley lake system. It is famous for its pink flamingos and other wildlife

A lioness takes a stroll at the Nairobi National Park. The city Skyline can be seen in the background

Mount Kenya is the second highest mountain in Africa. It was formed from a volcanic eruption. Kenya Gets its name from the mountain

Most Kenyans travel by means of matatus. They are usually highly decorated minibuses that express urban culture

Part of traditional Maasai initiation involved killing a lion single-handedly. Now they use their culture to conserve wildlife

The ornate body art styles of the coastal people is made from natural dyes called hena

Nyama choma is the Kenyan version of barbecue. It is popular at parties

Ugali, collards and tripe is a common dinner meal

Or you can dine with giraffes at the Giraffe Manor

